

I think K-Love is a great station. I think they have a great Ministry going on. They not only have great music but they also have good leaders. The radio stations in my area really do minister to not only myself but others listening to it and will be really missed if it is turned off.